Calls Returned Promptly! School Begins Again: Tue., April 6th

Dear Parent,

"What do they teach you at that school," asked Pa, "besides readin' and 'ritin'?" "Well, Pa," replied the boy, "they teach me things like geometry and trigonometry, and…" "Say something in geometry," interrupted the father. The lad thought for a moment and then said, "Pi R squared." "That's ridiculous," exclaimed Pa. "Everybody knows that pies are round; it's cornbread that are squared." Pi R squared = circle circumference
