

---

Coal City Unit District #1
General Psychology
Social Studies Curriculum

---

SS.PY:1      Students will demonstrate knowledge of the history of psychology and the methods used in research. (IL.PSY.1-3, 6-8)

SS.PY:1-1      Identify scientific methodologies utilized in psychological research.

SS.PY:1-2      Analyze the conclusions made by psychological research, including ethical concerns.

SS.PY:1-3      Summarize contributions of psychology to modern life.

SS.PY:1-4      Identify famous psychologists and their experiments.

SS.PY:1-5      Define psychological perspectives and their concepts.

SS.PY:2      Students will demonstrate knowledge of biological interaction with psychology. (IL.PSY.4-5, 8)

SS.PY:2-1      Identify psychological terms related to psychological biology.

SS.PY:2-2      Describe the structure and function of the major regions of the human brain.

SS.PY:2-3      Summarize the process and disorders associated with sleep.

SS.PY:2-4      Define gender and the development of gender roles.

SS.PY:3      Students will demonstrate knowledge of cognitive abilities and the learning process. (IL.PSY.4-5, 8, IL.IS.6-7)

SS.PY:3-1      Identify psychological terms based on the learning process.

SS.PY:3-2      Explain the formula for IQ.

SS.PY:3-3      Compare different learning styles. (e.g. Operant, Classical, Social)

SS.PY:3-4      Examine various views on intelligence.

SS.PY:3-5      Summarize the memory process.

SS.PY:4      Students will demonstrate knowledge of psychological health. (IL.PSY.4-6, 8, IL.IS.5)

SS.PY:4-1      Identify the various aspects of abnormal behavior.

SS.PY:4-2      Explain the classification of mental disorders.

SS.PY:4-3      Describe different psychological/biomedical treatments.

SS.PY:4-4      Recognize various psychological disorders and their symptoms.

SS.PY:4-5      Analyze a sample psychological case.